CHC Physician Services Expands with New Specialists

This summer, four new physicians have joined CHC Physician Services to expand access to specialists in Southcentral Kentucky. Additions include otolaryngology, vascular surgery, bariatric surgery, and obstetrics and gynecology.

Brad Morris, M.D.

Otolaryngologist Brad Morris, M.D., joined ENT Bowling Green in July. Dr. Morris is a graduate of University of Kentucky College of Medicine and completed his residency in otolaryngology at UK. He joins Hugh Sims, M.D. in serving all general ENT needs as well as broadening services to include the diagnosis and treatment of disorders related to the middle ear. His addition to the community allows Southcentral Kentucky residents to stay in Bowling Green for middle ear procedures previously referred to Nashville or Louisville.

Shane O’Keeffe, M.D.

Vascular Surgeon Shane O’Keeffe, M.D. joined The Heart Institute at The Medical Center in July. Dr. O’Keeffe completed his medical degree at University College Cork in Ireland. He completed his internship at Vanderbilt University and residency training at the University of Kentucky. He is fellowship-trained in vascular surgery from the University of Kentucky. A board certified surgeon, Dr. O’Keeffe comes to Bowling Green from UK HealthCare to join vascular surgeons Michael Byrne, M.D. and Don Brown, D.O. at The Heart Institute.

O. Raphael Nwanguma, M.D.

Bariatric Surgeon O. Raphael Nwanguma, M.D. will join The Medical Center Surgical Weight Loss Program in August. Dr. Nwanguma earned his medical degree at Temple University School of Medicine in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He completed his general surgery residency training at Penn State Milton S. Hershey Medical Center and his bariatric surgery fellowship at University of Pittsburgh Medical Center (UPMC). Dr. Nwanguma relocates from UPMC to join bariatric surgeon John Oldham, M.D. with Bluegrass Bariatric Surgical Associates in providing minimally-invasive surgery options through The Medical Center Surgical Weight Loss Program.

Manmeet Sandhu, M.D.

Manmeet Sandhu, M.D. who specializes in obstetrics and gynecology will join Women’s Health Specialists on August 15. Dr. Sandhu is a graduate of Manipal University’s Kasturba Medical College in Mangalore, India. She completed her residency in obstetrics and gynecology at Aurora Sinai Medical Center in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. She relocates to Bowling Green from Aurora Health Care in West Bend, Wis. to join Jeffery Nemecek, M.D., Deborah Kasica, M.D., Devin Trevor, M.D. and Leigh Lindsey, Ph.D., CNM at Women’s Health Specialists to provide complete prenatal, maternal and gynecological care.
